A photograph of two young adults, a man and a woman, sitting at a desk in what appears to be a computer lab or study area. The man, on the left, is wearing a red t-shirt and is focused on his laptop screen. The woman, on the right, is wearing a blue striped shirt and is smiling. In the foreground, a purple water bottle with the word "Bowdoin" on it is visible. The background shows other desks and chairs, suggesting a shared workspace.

The image shows a dark-themed website for "Local Hack Day". At the top left is the "MLH" logo. To its right is a navigation bar with links: Hello, About, Testimonials, Map, and Join. In the top right corner is a badge that reads "MLH OFFICIAL" and "FALL 15". The main title "LOCAL HACK DAY" is prominently displayed in large, white, textured letters. Below the title is a subtitle: "Unite your community for the most Global Local Hackathon of the year." A descriptive paragraph follows: "Local Hack Day brings together the students at your school for twelve hours of learning, community, and building." The date "October 10, 2015" and location "Everywhere, Worldwide" are mentioned. A button at the bottom center says "REGISTRATION NOW OPEN".
